

New Java Application In Progress

Contributed by Administrator
Saturday, 29 March 2008

Eunited Infotech has a new Java Application in progress that will help in Ad Management. The new application will help in effective reporting and provide our clients a new way of managing their ad servers. We are sorry to say that this new java based application will not be open to adlogic members as it is not designed for the adlogic system.